

Native Americans for Community Action is hosting a
FREE Training

Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training (ASIST)

Monday and Tuesday, March 5th & 6th, 2012

8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Community Room, Flagstaff Aquaplex

1702 N. Fourth St., Flagstaff, Arizona

Training will include:

- Recognizing invitations for help, reaching out and offering support
- Reviewing the risk of suicide, applying a suicide intervention model
- Linking people with community resources

(Lunch, snacks, coffee, and water will be provided to participants)

Presented by:

experienced and passionate trainers and facilitators with certifications in Suicide Intervention from LivingWorks.net

Please send registrations to NACA Suicide Prevention Program: spp@nacainc.org or call (928) 526 – 2968 or fax: (928) 526-0708

REGISTRATION FORM

ASIST: Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training

March 5th & 6th, 2012

Flagstaff Aquaplex

Free 2-day ASIST Training from 8:00 am – 5:00pm

(includes lunch, snacks & all workshop materials)

- Enjoy small group discussions & skills practice
- Experience powerful videos on suicide intervention
- Feel comfortable & safe
- Learn suicide “First Aid” to help a person at risk stay safe & seek further help

Name: _____

Organization _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email _____

Dietary considerations: _____

“Let’s Make our Community a Suicide Safer Community”

Please contact Emmy Burrue, NACA Suicide Prevention Program, for more information: spp@nacainc.org

 This training is being provided with support from a HHS Meth Suicide Prevention Initiative Grant.