Governor Brewer to Conduct Emergency Cabinet Meeting

State's Fiscal Crisis Left Unresolved

PHOENIX – Arizona Governor Jan Brewer will hold an emergency meeting of her Cabinet officials on Monday morning at 9:00 a.m. to discuss the latest information about the State's massive and unresolved budget deficit. The Governor today received legislation for additional budget reductions, a measure she is reviewing over the weekend but is expected to approve in coming days. Despite today's legislative action, the Governor and legislators agree these cuts are not large enough to resolve the State's fiscal crisis.

The Cabinet meeting will be opened for media members to attend. Space is limited.
